

Premier 'giving the finger' to auditor on green energy: Hudak read more

Tuesday, December 06 More weather >

evening 1°C night 0°C morning 0°C

HOLIDAY: ELEANOR MCCAIN

Tweet 2 Recommend

Eleanor McCain Photo by www.eleanormccain.ca

"Music evokes emotion and stirs warm memories," says McCain. "For me, as with many families, sentiments run deep at this time of year and nothing does that more than holiday music. This just felt like the right time for me to record this CD."

With a childhood of picturesque snowy, family-filled Christmases in Florenceville, New Brunswick, Eleanor spent much of the holidays singing in Christmas concerts and performing in church while her mother played the organ. Music proved to be a key ingredient to those memories and traditions and it is no surprise that collecting and listening to beautiful Christmas music became a personal passion for Eleanor. She credits her mother with passing down that passion and has dedicated this CD to her for that reason.

Naughty and Nice

The two-disc CD contains recordings of 19 familiar and classic holiday tracks. Grouping the songs into traditional and secular or up-tempo, the discs were quickly nicknamed "Naughty" and "Nice."

"We had a lot of fun with that theme," says Eleanor. "It made sense for the CD, but I think it also helps people fit the music to the occasion. A quiet night at home with family is ideal for the traditional or 'nice' songs while an evening entertaining friends is a better occasion to play those on the 'Naughty' CD."

CD can be downloaded online at www.eleanormccain.ca
Eleanor will be singing at teh Lowe's Toronto Christmas Market on Dec 11th at 3pm

Video segment:

Advertisement

GROUPON Ridiculous daily discounts on top rated local fun SAVE UP TO 90% >>

LATEST SHOWS

OCTOBER 31, 2011
On today's show: Canadian singer Jann Arden discusses her latest album "Uncover Me 2", which comes out November 1st; Lea Grimanis speaks to our panel on why she was named Chatelaine magazine's Woman of the Year; Restaurateur and director of one of Toronto's most high profile event planning and catering companies Sebastian Centner advices us on how to throw a spectacular shindig; and Liza grand marshals our Halloween parade

OCTOBER 28, 2011
On today's show: Amy Muise discusses the effects of social media on relationships. Plus: Jesse Hayman from Movember Canada will be here to talk all things 'stache'. Also: we have a special surprise for Liza via Duran Duran.

OCTOBER 27, 2011
On Today's Show: Tom Perrotta shares his new book The Leftovers. Named the World's Best Drink Writer Natalie Maclean is Unquenchable and tells about her quest for bargain wines.

OCTOBER 26, 2011
On Today's Show: Radio veterans Humble and Fred talk about their new podcast. Critic Greg David snipes hits and misses on television this season. Also: Ryan Emond dishes about the success of his viral video Tempo Toronto. Plus Tracy Pepe is a scent designer who's nose knows.

OCTOBER 25, 2011
On today's show: Actors, Michael Biehn from the Terminator, and Milo Ventimiglia from Heroes here to promote The Divide coming in January 2012. Also: Sophie Millman, Toronto based jazz vocalist features new album In The Moonlight.